

Shipping & Returns

Documento sin título

All orders will be shipped by certified mail.

Costs of manipulation and shipment will be determined according to package weight and destination. These costs will be specified in the invoice we will include with the acquired products.

Claims about received items :

In case of receiving a package with any sign of manipulation or striking,you must indicate it on the delivery note and check the merchandise in presence of carrier.
Don't sign the note without indicating these incidences in spite of check that your material look to be in good conditions. If you find any difference between received items and shipping invoice,please let us know immediately,specifying the invoice number and detailing the differences found.

Returns :

We will not admit returns while during seven working days following to product reception.
In case of return contact us at

siscobf@winpic800.com